VIII. CORRESPONDENCE AND COMMENTARY

* Contributions to Book on Tibetan Dogs Sought

For a book he is editing on the natural history of the Tibetan Mastiff of the Himalaya, Donald A. Messerschmidt is actively seeking contributions of original and/or previously published material, including illustrations or art, excerpts of previously published materials, original writings, vignettes, accounts in legend, myth, or religion, proverbs, bibliographic references, travelers' accounts, et cetera.

The book is intended for a general audience, but will include scholarly references to history, culture, literature, art, religion, et cetera, of interest to Tibetologists and Himalayanists more specifically. The book's main focus will be on the natural history of this livestock protection dog in the culture of the Himalayas and Tibet.

All contributions selected for publication will be fully acknowledged.
